SATURDAY AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS

There will be two sessions for each workshop that will run concurrently. You may attend two.

A - Harvey Wrightman – “Gardening in Tufa”

Harvey will demonstrate drilling holes in Tufa, for planting rooted cuttings. He will provide suggestions on appropriate plants for Tufa gardens, and will discuss how desirable but tricky plants can be grown with success.

B - Paul Ehnes – “Pruning with Paul”

Paul will demonstrate pruning techniques for a variety of shrubs, as well as the timing to encourage bloom and to maintain the health and shape of the plant.

C - Michael Dolbey – “To go Digital or Not to go Digital - That is the Question?”

Michael will examine the pros and cons of digital photography and explain the specific features of various cameras as well as the procedure involved in producing a slide show.

OTHER EVENTS

Plant Sales – ORGS and vendors will be available for specialized selections of plants and seeds.

Silent Auction – Plants and products will be available for bids until 19:00 on Saturday after which the winners will be able to collect their choice selections.

Book Sales – Horticultural books will be available for purchase both from NARGS and ORGS.

Vendors – Selected vendors will be on site with alpine troughs, garden products, and seeds to entice you to take home memories of your NARGS 2005 Winter Study Weekend.
